RUMOR THAT DE WET WILL SURRENDER

Stipulates That Boer Leaders Shall Not Be Deported.

Kitchener Reports That He Is Driving Enemy From Cape Colony.

BLOEMFONTEIN, Orange River Colony, Wednesday, Dec. 26.—There are renewed but unconfirmed rumors here that General De Wet and President Steyns general, Haasbroek, at a conference decided to order surrender, providing the Colonial rebels are not punished and the leaders, including themselves, are not deported.

BOERS ARE ACTIVE
LONDON, Dec. 27.—The following dispatch has been received from Lord Kitchener.

"PRITORTIA, Dec. 26.—Knox, with Barker, Picher and White, is engaged with De Wet's force, holding a position in the neighborhood of Loukop. De Wet hopes to break through and go south again.

"The Boers' eastern column in Cape Colony is apparently headed by our troops about Koppies Spruit. The Boers' western column is reported to have gone north in two portions, one towards Prieska and the other through Steynsburg. They are being followed up."

The following dispatch from General Kitchener was received from Pretoria under today's (Thursday) date.
"Yesterday 200 Boers attacked a small police post near Bokkoppies. The police gallantly drove them off before reinforcements from Johannesburg arrived. The Boers damaged the mining machinery in the neighborhood.

"The Boers attacked Utrecht at 2 o'clock this morning and were driven off."

"The Boers held up a train three miles west of Jan and were driven off. The Eastern force of Boers in Cape Colony was headed yesterday and driven in the direction of Ventersdorp. The Western force is still being driven north through Stijnsburg."

BRITISH REPULSED.

BUENHOSAIRES, Cape Colony, Wednesday, Dec. 26.—Colonel Grenfell continues in touch with Krutzinger's command of 500 men who are carrying off the British prisoners. Krutzinger has abandoned his Maxim and carts. An attempt of the Ninth Lancers to turn Krutzinger's flank at Platshuys, December 24th, resulted in eight casualties among the Lancers, including Lord Frederick Blackwood, who was wounded.

YOMAMBY RELEASED.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—The Evening Standard today says it understands that the squadron of yomamby which, as announced in a dispatch from Cape Town yesterday, was captured and captured by the Boers whom they were following from Britstown, were released after the men had been relieved of their horses and other equipment. Ten of the yomamby, the paper adds, were wounded.

* TERMINAL FOR SALT LAKE ROAD. *

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 27.—The directors of the California Improvement Company, Colonel George L. Lightfoot, S. A. Harris, S. V. Forney, Charles Clark and J. C. Kerns, at a meeting held here, authorized a resolution authorizing the winding up of the affairs of the company and the transfer of the property of the Los Angeles Terminal Railroad Company, all of the lands and belongings, to the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad. This action will be ratified at a meeting of the stockholders to be held in East St. Louis in accordance with the laws governing Illinois corporations, on Monday, January 14th.

The San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad of incorporation estimate the length of this proposed road at 1,100 miles and the cost of equipment and building at $25,000,000. The company's headquarters are to be at Salt Lake City. The capital stock authorized is $25,000,000, and the par value of shares $100.

* TORTURED BY GIANT NEGRO. *

MARIETTA, Ohio, Dec. 27.—Abraham Johnson and wife, both over 80 years of age, were bound, tortured and robbed last night at their home near Marietta, on the West Virginia side. Their assailant, a gigantic negro, left his victims bound after securing all valuables.

Mrs. Johnson is almost totally paralyzed from the shock and her husband is badly injured.

ADDS DOUBLE MURDER TO HIS TREACHERY.

Shoots His Wife After Robbing Her on the Wedding Trip and Then Kills Himself.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 27.—This morning at 11:25, on the corner of Eighth and Olive streets, John W. Tinsley shot and killed his wife, Anna P. Tinsley, and then fired a bullet into his own head, dying instantly. The bullet that killed his wife entered the left eye and penetrated the brain. She was alive when picked up but died on the way to the Receiving Hospital.

The couple were married at Ven. Buren, Ark., January 20, this year. Tinsley represented himself as possessed of property in Helena, Mont., to the value of $75,000. His wife had $300 cash and a house and lot in Jackson, Tenn., valued at $2,500. This latter her husband induced her to sacrifice for $1,500 and five days after marriage they came to Los Angeles on a honeymoon trip, the expenses of which were defrayed by Mrs. Tinsley. From here they went to Mineral Wells, Texas, and August 28th reached Excelsior Springs, Mo. There Tinsley induced his wife to transfer to him the $700 that remained of her money and told her he must go to Helena to settle up some business affairs. After his departure she found that he had also taken in diamond ring and stud valued at $100.

She received a telegram from him later, dated Los Angeles, in which he acknowledged that he had deceived her in regard to his wealth and that she would see him no more.

She followed him here, but in the meantime he had departed for St. Louis, Mo. Two weeks later he returned to Los Angeles, and an arrangement was made whereby he gave her a draft on an Arkansas bank for $25 and promised to make other reparation. She sent the draft on for collection, and it was returned with the statement that the money was Tinsley's credit had been withdrawn by telegraph.

On the 21st of this month Mrs. Tinsley filed suit against her husband in the Superior Court to recover the $100 fraudulently obtained from her and bitrices over this suit and the troubles leading up to it evidently caused the double tragedy this morning.

It is now alleged that Tinsley has another wife in Towson, Md.

Laz Cohen, a young man whose home is at Railroad avenue and Willow street, Alameda, was taken to the insane ward of the Receiving Hospital this morning by the Alameda police. His mental condition will be examined tomorrow morning by Drs. Keys and Tidwell.

It is stated that for a long time Cohen has been an annoyance to the neighborhood where he resides. He was in the street in front of his mother's house yesterday shouting like an Apache Indian when Mrs. Cohen went out to remonstrate with him. Cohen flew into a rage, secured an ax and attempted to kill his mother. He chased her into the house with the weapon, where the woman had a desperate battle with the maniac to save her life.

She grappled with him in an endeavor to free her ax, but her son overpowered her and had her down on the kitchen floor with the hatchet upraised ready to brain her when neighbors rushed in and disarmed him.

A fierce fight ensued between the crazy man and his mother's rescuers. He finally drove everybody from the house and held possession until the police were summoned. The man struggled like a demon even after he was manacled, and it was with the greatest difficulty that he was finally lodged in the Alameda City Prison.

Cohen had quieted down considerably this morning and was removed to the Receiving Hospital.

KIDNAPED BOY RESTORED TO HIS FATHER.

Child Stolen By His Mother and Spirited Away in a Hack.

She Gives Up the Lad When Found and Is Not Arrested.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special-Linked Wire.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 27.—Sylvester Miller, the 7-year-old son of Samuel D. Miller, the grandson of former United States Attorney General W. H. H. Miller, who was kidnapped by his mother yesterday evening, was recovered this morning.

Mrs. Miller and the child were found at Lawrence about 3 o'clock, asleep in a house where they had obtained lodging. Mrs. Miller gave up the child and was not placed under arrest.

Mrs. Miller came here from her home in New York and stopped at the Denison Hotel. By arrangement with her husband, who has had the custody of the child since their separation last summer, Mrs. Miller was allowed to see the boy once a day. Yesterday afternoon the child was taken to the hotel by his governess. Mrs. Miller called a carriage.

The governess objected to having the boy leave her side, as she had been warned that an attempt to kidnap might be made. Mrs. Miller said she was only going out for a drive, but the girl insisted on going along. The carriage was ordered to be driven to the Union Station. The governess sprang out and telephoned the father of the child to come to the station.

The detectives and other searchers were unable to find any trace of the childman, George Fenner, until early this morning, when he was found at his home. He said he was ordered to drive to the Massachusetts avenue station, after going to the Union Station. At Massachusetts avenue Mrs. Miller seemed to change her mind and ordered him to go on to Brightwood. At this station it was ascertained that the train which Mrs. Miller had counted on taking had left. Fenner left her at Twenty-fifth street, contracting with a liverman to take her to Lawrence. The clew furnished by Fenner enabled the officers to trace the woman.

Mrs. Miller left Lawrence early today on the east-bound train, presumably for New York. Before leaving she announced that she would bring suit for possession of the boy.

describing several forms of exercising he said:

"Cheo-cheong is the most exhausting. The man is required to get down and use hands and legs as rapidly as possible in propelling himself over the ground."

The next witness was R. C. Hozer, chief engineer of Buffalo, a brother of the late Col. Oscar L. Hozer. The witness had not seen his brother during the time he was in the West Point Academy in 1883. Mr. Hozer continued:

"I received a letter from him shortly after he went to the academy. In it he said he felt very strange at the place, as it was his first experience away from home. In the second letter, which I got about the first of August, he told me he would be called out to fight in about a week. He complained of having had to take tobacco sauce and suffered from a sore throat in consequence. He claimed it was forced down his throat and he had to swallow it or choke."

"Have you got those letters?" asked General Clous.

"I have not, sir. I destroyed all the letters I got from him while here," replied witness.

"In other letters which I got from him," the witness added, "he complained of being hazed, and said he was being treated more severely than others. Later in the year he wrote to me suggesting that my father allow him to send in his resignation. Oscar was not fresh and was not the kind of a boy that would be hazed."

"Did he ever mention any names of the men who hazed him?" General Clous asked.

"No, he did not."

Continuing, the witness said he objected to Oscar leaving the academy.

"I saw him after he left, but did not speak to him of his treatment."

HIGH MASONIC OFFICIAL SHOT BY A WOMAN.

Wm. H. Smythe Fatally Wounded in His Office in the Indianapolis Masonic Temple.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 27.—William H. Smythe, grand secretary of the Masonic Order of Indiana, was shot and probably fatally wounded today in his office in the Indianapolis Masonic Temple in this city.

The shooting is a mystery.

Mr. Smythe said a blonde woman had entered his office and asked permission to use the telephone.

He was busy and told her he could not be bothered.

Without further words she leveled a revolver at him and fired three times.

The police reached the scene only a few minutes after the tragedy but no trace of the woman was found.

Mr. Smythe was discovered by Lewis A. Coleman, an attorney.

The wounded man was lying on the floor in a pool of blood.

Coleman called the police. Smythe's son says he cannot imagine who fired the shots.

An examination revealed that three shots had been fired.

Three bullets were removed from the wounded man's head.

Up to 2:30 o'clock yesterday the mysterious blonde woman who shot him had not been captured.

This fact has caused the suicide theory to be advanced. Members of the Smythe family scout the idea, however.
